

Parlaunt Park Primary Academy

A learning environment where everyone learns new skills. The staff training day discovering and being curious about story telling using a practical approach.

The teachers, learning support assistants and the administration team all joined in to make models, work collaboratively and have fun!

